A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

As the prophet Isaiah proclaims in the first reading, the Lord continues to remind us that we are his servants. Imagine the Lord speaking these words to you personally: "You are my servant. Through you I show my glory. I formed you as my servant from your mother's womb. I will make you a light so that you may shine the light of my salvation everywhere you go, and reveal my glory to everyone you encounter. I will give you the strength to do this. I will give you confidence. Heed my words, for I have spoken to you." What would your response be to the Lord? Would it be different from the response you give the Lord now?

UPDATE on 7am weekday masses: Monday to Thursday at Our Lady and Friday only at Holy Ghost

This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week
January 15, 2023

1st Reading Is 49:3, 5-6
God Is My Strength

This bible reading is from the second "Servant Song" in Isaiah. The prophet speaks of the Servant's prophetic mission, namely to raise up the tribes of Israel, who were downtrodden in Babylonian slavery.

The Church reapplies this poem to Jesus Christ, God's Servant, whose mission it is to raise up you and me when we are depressed. That is what a friend does for a friend.

The Responsorial Psalm is a prayer of thanksgiving for deliverance out of tribulation. The writer of the Letter to the Hebrews puts the words of the Refrain into the mouth of our suffering Savior. We should try to pray the psalm with our Lord.

Responsorial Psalm:

Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.

2nd Reading 1 Cor 1: 1-3
A Holy People

Paul sends his greetings to "the church of God that is in Corinth!" We are members of the universal Church, which is realized in our own congregation. We should not be narrow-minded and identify our own congregation with the universal Church. We are more than just members of St. Jude's!"

Gospel Jn 1:29-34
Encountering Christ

This Gospel reading tells us about who the Lord Jesus is and about the process of getting to know him more intimately. Jesus is "the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world": Christ, our Passover sacrifice! He is great, greater than John the Baptist himself: he is to baptize with the Holy Spirit.

Jesus is God's chosen one. Do you recognize the Lord as such in your life? Pray that you may see for yourself as John the Baptist did with the help of God.

"When we encounter Christ, experience his love, and deepen our relationship with him, we become more aware of our own worth and that of others. His love for each person is cause for great joy, and growing understanding of this priceless treasure motivates us to share his love with others. Our lives are often changed by the witness of others; so too, others' lives may be changed by our witness and authentic friendship with them."
