This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week
April 14, 2024

We look forward to the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. (Reading in Blue Missal pg. 348)

1st Reading Acts 3: 13-15, 17-19
Culpable Ignorance

The sacred author has Peter say harsh words to the Jewish people. He blames them for killing the Holy and Righteous One, the author of life, our Lord Jesus Christ. But he adds quickly, "I know, brothers, that you acted out of ignorance." Judging others should be left up to God. But it is clear that ignorance on the part of those who should know is blameworthy and causes harm and disaster.

Responsorial Psalm: Lord, let your face shine on us.

2nd Reading 1 John 2: 1-5a
Fruitful Knowledge

There is a difference between knowing about your marriage partner and knowing him/her. Knowing a great deal about God and religion does not make one necessarily a good Christian. The greatest theologians were not always the greatest saints! The author of John states that knowing God is a religious experience in which you are involved. Love has very much to do with it! "The way we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments," in other words, to do what he wants us to do. This kind of knowledge is acquired not only by study but also and much more by prayer!

Gospel Luke 24: 35-48 Understanding the Scriptures

Luke states that our Lord opened the minds of the disciples to the understanding of the Scriptures. Experiencing God in meditative and prayerful Bible reading is the clue to Christian renewal. Understanding the human writers' word in the Bible is a necessary condition for understanding God's word in Scripture. Hence, partaking in a study group is important. Doing things together under capable leadership makes study easier. But the real understanding of the Scriptures requires prayer and meditation, because the Lord must open your mind and give you insight.

WORD OF LIFE

"Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, 'God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end' (Spe salvi 31)." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities
