PASTOR'S MESSAGE - Father Anton Nyo, M.S.

Jesus as our Good Shepherd comes not to be served but to serve and give his life as ransom for many. On this good shepherd Sunday, we reinstall some of the PPC members, who have served this parish for several years and at the same time we also install new members, who will join them in responding to this call of service for the greater glory of God and for the good of this local church. May they be filled with the love, faithfulness and zeal of the Good Shepherd and may they be good examples/inspiration to every parishioner of this kula catholic community, that they hold so dearly close to their hearts. We thank also some PPC members, who selflessly offered their time, talents, and treasure in the previous term for the Lord's Church. Aside from PPC, we also have the Finance Council and Building & Maintenance Committee that play a vital role in our Parish. Congratulations and thank you so much! May God, who worked wonderful things in us continue to bless us with many more accomplishments through them!

This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week

April 21, 2024

Respond to the Lord's sacrificial love with gratitude, trust, and love.

(Reading in Blue Missal pg. 350)

1st Reading Acts 4: 8-12
Salvation in Jesus

In this reading, pay attention to the affinity between the sign and what is signified. In other words, the saved man is a sign of all of us saved in the name of Jesus. Israel has rejected him. But there is no salvation in anyone else! The Responsorial Psalm states the same: "It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in man." "Where do you turn in times of depression or when you are "crippled" because things do not go your way?"

Responsorial Psalm: The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.

2nd Reading 1 John 3: 1-2
Children of God

In faith, following Jesus of Nazareth, we see the ultimate reality as a person, and are privileged to call him "Father". The author of John uses similar language. If God can be called "Father", then we are his children and feel safe, because we are taken care of. A living relationship of child-Father may save us from ourselves when all around us seems absurdity. The key to such a living relationship with God our Father is to keep in touch with him by prayerful Bible reading.

Gospel John 10: 11-18
The Good Shepherd

This reading brings out the idea of salvation with another sign or image, namely, that of the shepherd tending his flock. As suggested in the First Reading, do not turn somewhere else, to a hired hand, who lets you down when you need help most. The Lord Jesus knows you and is concerned. He laid down his life for you. Turn to him in prayer and meditative encounter in your Bible and you will find peace of mind.

WORD OF LIFE

"Suicidal individuals—with or without a terminal illness—typically do not want to die; they want to escape what they perceive to be an intolerable situation, and they inaccurately believe that suicide is their only way out. The patient requesting assisted suicide is often asking, 'Does anyone want me to be alive, or care enough to talk me out of this request and support me through this difficult time?'"

Work Day

March 23, 2024

Thank you to chair, Joe White, for coordinating this event.

Holy Ghost Cemetery - Before
Notice the pile of dried branches along the fence. What an eyesore.

HG Cemetery - After
The anonymous steward cleared and hauled the rubbish. Now it's a sight to behold.

Father, with the help of Buddy, reconstructed the outside altar in preparation for Easter Sunday Mass.

Due to the power outage, the Fish Fry crew, spearheaded by Fred and Frank, worked in the dark to get our dinners hot and ready. Mahalo to all who supported this annual fundraiser.
