St. James the Less Feast Day

May 3

St. James the Less, author of the first Catholic Epistle, was the son of Alphaeus of Cleophas. His mother Mary was either a sister or a close relative of the Blessed Virgin, and for that reason, according to Jewish custom, he was sometimes called the brother of the Lord. The Apostle held a distinguished position in the early Christian community of Jerusalem. St. Paul tells us he was a witness of the Resurrection of Christ; he is also a "pillar" of the Church, whom St. Paul consulted about the Gospel. A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Sixth Sunday of Easter Weekend of May 4/5, 2024

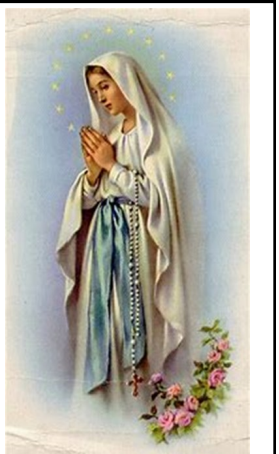

In today's Gospel, Jesus commands his disciples, whom he calls "friends," to love one another as he loves them. Jesus uses the word "love" as a verb or a noun nine times. He also employs the word "command" or "commandment" five times. His command to love one another is explicit. Those who understand the depth of Christ's love for us have reason to be joyful. We are called to be stewards of this loving friendship; to love one another as Jesus loves us.

Do we give serious attention to what this love requires of us? What is the price of this friendship with the Lord? Are we willing to pay this price to keep Christ's friendship?

May is the Month of the Rosary

Join us 30 minutes before every Mass in praying for the intercession of our Blessed Mother.

Hail Mary, Full Of Grace, The Lord Is With You. Blessed Are You Among Women And Blessed Is The Fruit Of Your Womb, Jesus.

This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week

May 5, 2024

Remain in Jesus as the Father tends and cares for us.

(Reading in Blue Missal pg. 355)

1st Reading Acts 10:25-26; 34-35, 44-48
God Loves All

We learn that God's spirit of love came down upon a Gentile, non-Jew, even before he was baptized. Why does Luke narrate this tradition? He wants to teach first that, authorized by Peter, Christianity should be preached to all without imposing the laws of the Jewish faith upon them, and secondly that the Spirit can take an initiative wherever he wishes. Faith in Jesus Christ sealed by baptism is the way to salvation for all who are called. It does not mean that God is unable to bestow salvation outside the framework of organized Christianity. God's salvific will is universal. God's will that all be saved follows the definition of God given by the author of John in the Second Reading, where he states: "God is love."

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

2nd Reading 1 John 4: 7-10
God is Love

We want a meaningful life. In today's Gospel our Lord says: "Go and bear fruit that will remain." But in trying to attain your goals in life, where does God fit in? This scripture reading states: "God is love." Hence, we could just as well ask: In trying to attain your goals in life, where does "love" fit in? "Whoever is without love does not know God." Only love make your life meaningful and worth living. Pray for selfless love because it is from God.

Gospel John 15: 9-17
Love One Another

John teaches us about love of God and neighbor, friendship and complete joy that result in a meaningful life, "bearing fruit." But why do so many fail in love even after starting out so beautifully? Over the years, did they try to listen to one another? Was there an emphasis on mutual understanding, forgiveness after failures, and fidelity to an initial "yes" when it was difficult? Love, like a plant, must be cared for daily, otherwise it withers. Check your own life, have an honest discussion if necessary, pray and pattern your love after Jesus' example: "Love one another as I love you."

WORD OF LIFE

"The Lord says to us, 'Do not fear: I am with you' (Isaiah 41:10). He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering. And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God. Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new."

JAMS & JELLIES BOOTH:

JABOTICABA JELLY—JELLY CHOICE OF THE YEAR

What is Jaboticaba? A dark purple berry nicknamed "Brazilian Grape", as it is native to Brazil. With a very short shelf life, fermenting only 3 days after being picked, it is considered gold dust outside of Brazil and we are blessed to have several of these trees on Maui producing fruit.

What makes these berries unique? They are very nutritious, higher in antioxidants than blueberries, grapes or even acai, as well as having anti-inflammatory properties. They grow on the trunks of trees, smothering the trunks rather than appearing among the leaves.

How do they taste? Their flavor is described as a combination of grape and lychee. These has been a bumper crop this year and we have 8 oz. pint jars of jelly available, processed only days after being picked.
