A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Among the compelling Eucharistic themes proclaimed in today's readings is the notion of "participation" as found in Saint Paul's letter to the Corinthians. Good stewards are part of a Eucharistic family: loving, welcoming, serving. An important part of living as a steward comes about in the many ways we can participate in the life of the Church. No matter how much time we have to give, no matter what our skills or interests, no matter what our level of commitment, there is a way to participate as a good steward to enrich our lives and the lives of others to build up the Body of Christ. How do you participate in the life of your parish?

This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week
June 11, 2023

1st Reading Dt 8:2-3, 14b-16a
Manna in the Desert

During the time of affliction in the desert, God took care of his people and gave them the basics they needed, water and bread. But the writer of Deuteronomy, meditating on the desert experience of his people, lets Moses indicate that God intended more than just taking care of physical needs. "(God) fed you with manna...in order to show you that not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that come forth from the mouth of the Lord." The psalmist, and we with him, thank God for his care. "With the best of wheat he fills you... He has proclaimed his word to Jacob. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

Responsorial Psalm:

Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

2nd Reading 1 Cor 10: 16-17
Body and Blood

Paul does not want the Christians of Corinth to take part in pagan sacrifices to which relatives invite them. We have our Passover sacrifice, the body and blood of Christ. Notice that in Biblical language, "body and blood" do not indicate the things as such but the whole person and the event that they signify, namely, Jesus Christ giving himself in his meritorious death, in which we share when we partake in the Eucharist. Moreover, Paul teaches that not only is such partaking communion with the Lord and a guarantee for salvation. It also means communion with the fellow members. God's word: Heed both aspects of Holy Communion.

Gospel Jn 6: 51-58
Living Bread

Every time we take part in the Eucharistic Celebration, we should enter a more intimate relationship with Jesus Christ. Notice again that the words "flesh, body, blood" stand for the person! "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him," and through that continuous encounter with our Lord, such persons will have real life, life everlasting.

““In modern times, children in their mothers’ wombs and those approaching the end of their lives are certainly among the ‘least of these’ in our world’s estimation. Practices such as abortion and assisted suicide tragically reject the truth that human life is always to be cherished and defended with loving concern. ... Through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, may Our Lord grant us the grace to truly and courageously live his Gospel of life.”

PASTOR'S CORNER

Corpus Christi, The Greatest Gift of the Lord.

The greatest gift of God to us is life, but the greatest thing about life on earth is to gain eternal life of heaven. Our Lord Jesus instituted the Eucharist for our salvation as He said, "whoever eats this bread will live forever. Jn.6:58" He is the bread that comes down from heaven. He was born of the Virgin Mary in Bethlehem (house of bread). Our Blessed Mother, who went in haste to share the good news of salvation on her visit to Elizabeth while Jesus the bread of life was welcomed with joy by Jhon the Baptist. Our Good Lord continues to offer salvation to all souls through this holy Church by celebrating Eucharist every day. Let us make ourselves worthy like our Blessed mother, who makes her body and soul, heart and mind a Bethlehem to all. We must also share the grace of God to everyone we meet, as bring our Good Lord to all who hunger and thirst for Him. Jesus is truly present in the Blessed Sacrament with his full body and blood, soul and divinity for our safe journey in this life on earth, healing for the sick and nourishment for the starving souls. Let us continue to approach the Lord in the Eucharist with reverence and keep him safe in our hearts so that one day we will all be saved by Him. ~ Fr. Anton Nyo, M.S.
