October—Month of the Rosary.

Join us 30 minutes before each mass to pray the rosary.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Our Social Ministry team traveled to Lahaina to drop off much needed office supplies and water bottles to the students at Sacred Hearts School, temporarily located next to the church in Kapalua. Half of the school burned down in the Lahaina wildfires.

This box will then be placed on the Table of Remembrance and prayers will be said especially for them.

This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week
October 22, 2023

Let us build communities of peace and justice.
 (Reading in Blue Missal: pg. 253)

1st Reading Is 45: 1, 4-6
One God

After Cyrus had defeated Babylon in 539 B.C., he became the new ruler of the Middle East. Though Cyrus, a pagan, did not know it, God used him as an instrument to give freedom to his captive people. "I (God) have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not." The Hebrews paid tribute to God of history who goes his own way to obtain his goals. "Say among the nations: The Lord is King, he governs the peoples with equity".

Responsorial Psalm: Give the Lord glory and honor.

2nd Reading 1 Thes 1: 1-5b
Preaching the Gospel

This reading is from a letter that is the oldest New Testament document, written by Paul from Corinth in 50 A.D. Paul had founded a congregation at Thessalonica and sent Timothy to check how these new converts were coming along. Paul was pleased because they were doing fine and wrote them this letter of appreciation. Notice the characteristics that marked Christian life in Thessalonica: "work of faith" - "labor of love" - "endurance in hope of our Lord". God's word to us is that only if those three characteristics are present can our congregation be like yeast in the dough and have an uplifting impact on our community.

Gospel Mt 22: 15-21
Lawful Taxes

The Pharisees of Jesus' time were against paying taxes to the Romans, but the Herodians collaborated and paid taxes. Jesus goes beyond the question they asked him: Legitimate government has its rights, but God has his rights, too. "Repay To God what belongs to God." In case of conflict, we should obey God rather than humans.

Pastor's Corner

29th Sunday in ordinary time year A
 (World Mission Sunday)

29th ordinary Sunday year A; world mission Sunday

Though not all law-abiding citizens are Christians, all Christians must be law-abiding citizens. Jesus our Lord shows us how to fulfill our spiritual and temporal duties (to the government and to God). In the first reading of today, though Cyrus was not a Jew/ Israelite, but was chosen by God to liberate the Israelites and rebuild Jerusalem temple. On this world mission Sunday, we preach God's kingdom, which is beyond our Church to every creature that there will peace on earth as it is in heaven. Let us be filled with the Holy Spirit, who is the agent of our mission (Redemptoris Missio Chpt. 3 #21) so that in this difficult and challenging time, we will be able to say and act out and like our Lord, provide solution to our conflict world.
