"Jesus, Master! Have pity on us."

Luke 17:13

On October 7th, the Church celebrated the feast day of Mary, Queen of the Holy Rosary.

October is the Month of the Holy Rosary

The best way to celebrate the Month of the Holy Rosary is, to pray the rosary daily.

A Stewardship Moment In today's Gospel, we hear of the ten men afflicted with leprosy, and the one who glorifies God for being healed. It is a dramatic scene of gratitude. But in order for the miracle to happen in the first place, these men had to start walking in faith before their diseased conditions could change one tiny bit. Good stewards of their faith realize that they cannot wait until their problems are over to start walking in faith. They praise God even in the darkest of nights, and in the worst of circumstances. Do we walk in faith, offering the Lord our gratitude even when we are in difficult circumstances?

This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week
October 9, 2022

1st Reading 2 Kings 5:14-17
Gratitude to God

It is worth our while to read the hole story on Naaman the Syrian in 2 Kings 5. Notice that Naaman was a foreigner, not a member of God's chosen people. This foreigner received salvation and was very grateful. He pledged to worship the God of Israel from that moment on. In line with the opinion of his time, Naaman needs two mule-loads of earth, since the God of the land of Israel can be worshiped only on his own land.

Our Lord's comment on this narrative is also noteworthy: "There were many lepers in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet; yet not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian" (Lk 4:27). The point of this story is clearly that salvation from evil will be given to all. God's salvific will is universal! "The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power".

Responsorial Psalm:

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

2nd Reading 2 Tim 2:8-13
Life in Christ

We who are redeemed from evil should heed Paul's words to Timothy: "If we have died with him [i.e., died to evil by faith and baptism], we shall also live with him." A Christian life is a sign of gratitude and appreciation for the salvation from evil that God has bestowed upon us.

Gospel Lk 17:11-19
Salvation Through Faith

Notice that the only one who came back to thank our Lord was a Samaritan. Recall that "Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans" (Jn 4:9). The point is similar to that of the First Reading. All of us are contaminated by evil (leprosy-sin), but redeemed from evil by faith sealed by baptism.

Salvation from evil is given not only to us, but to all nations. And converts are often more appreciative and grateful than those of the household of faith. Ingratitude is a common human failing. We should be grateful for God's saving presence to us. "Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give him thanks and praise".

"An old Irish proverb says, 'It is in the shelter of each other that the people live.' Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how best to 'shelter' them. Here are some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them: usccb.org/end-of-life-care." PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Brothers and Sisters/ Parishioners / Co-sojourners as Kula Catholic Community,

Last Sunday, the gospel told us how the Apostles asked the Lord to increase their faith, now we hear Jesus tell the Samaritan man that his faith had saved him. Our faith in the Lord not only makes us stand strong on our own two feet but with these two feet walk toward Him for praise and thanksgiving. Like Naaman and the lepers from the readings for today, we should all come to the Lord for help then return to show Him gratitude. Eucharist is the highest form of thanksgiving and so, let us continue to thank the Lord for all the good things we receive from Him. We give thanks for ourselves and even on behalf of those who are ungrateful to the Lord. Father Anton

Outdoor Stations of the Cross Update

A special "traveling" box will be placed at the entrance of church and you'll be able to place your envelope with your family and friend's names listed on it. This box will then be placed on the Table of Remembrance and prayers will be said especially for them. The weekend of October 22nd & 23rd photos of your beloveds maybe brought in, we will have a box at the entrance of church for the photos.

Stewardship Day

Henrietta and Mary Jean attended Stewardship Day on October 1 at St. Ann's Church in Kaneohe, Oahu. Over 120 participants from across the diocese were in attendance. There were 2 breakout sessions and one plenary session with Bishop Silva. The day ended with mass and lunch. Mary Jean and Henrietta will share their reflections at a later date.

My Church, My Family, My Vision (or Our Church, Our Family, Our Vision?) SAVE THE DATE:

Join Fr. Anton on Saturday, October 29 at Holy Ghost Church from 9-11am as he shares his insights on the present church and hopes for the future of our parish. He invites you to jump on board, listen and to be a voice as we move forward together to raise the kingdom of God. Those who belong to a ministry are highly encouraged to attend (liturgy, PPC, building and maintenance, finance, bereavement, Social, Marriage and Family, Religious Ed and Youth). Ohana in Christ (OIC) Appeal

Mahalo for your generous contributions to last weekend's OIC kickoff. Your generosity already brought in a fourth of our goal. As a reminder, if you plan on writing a check, be sure to make it out to our church and write 'OIC' in the memo, then drop it in the offertory baskets. Online giving is also an option. Go to CatholicHawaii.org or pick up a white envelope at the entrance of the church for additional information. Our parish goal is $4244 by May 2023; half of 25% of our assessment fee ($8489). Please see Mary Jean Bega regarding questions about the OIC appeal.
