Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

"Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" John 11:25-26

This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week
April 17, 2022

1st Reading Acts 10:34a, 37-43
Salvation in Christ

In this speech of Peter, Luke wants to bring out the basic message of the early Church: the Lord's rejection ("they put him to death"); God's vindication ("God raised [him]"); and the apostles' witness to the Christ-event ("he commissioned us to preach").

Referring to the stone rejected and made the headstone of the corner, the Church applies Psalm 118 to the death and resurrection of Christ. Indeed, "this is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad".

Responsorial Psalm:

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

2nd Reading Col 3:1-4
Seek Heavenly Things

The First Reading proclaims the living Christ, his life, death, and resurrection. This Second Reading tells us about the implications of all of this for us. Through baptism you have died to your own sinful and egotistic self and you have been raised up to a new life with Christ. You are a Christian. This life is hidden. In its fullness, it will appear in the life to come.

The lesson is: "Think of what is above, not of what is on earth." This is a strong Semitic saying with the obvious meaning: Do not be so captivated by the tinsel of life or so infected with the commercialism of the day that you lose sight of the things above!

Gospel John 20:1-9
Renewed Faith

The point (God's Word) seems to be: "He saw and believed." The disciples were slow in coming to a realization of the resurrection since the Holy Spirit had not yet come to enlighten the Church concerning all these divine mysteries. We need the Holy Spirit! "God our Father,...let our celebration today raise us up and renew our lives by the Spirit that is within us".

Celebrate the resurrection of our Lord!

Happy

PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Brothers and Sisters/ Parishioners / Co-journeers as Kula Catholic Community,
 He is risen, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Grace and peace of the risen Lord to all! Let us boldly proclaim the mystery of faith, "dying You destroyed death, rising, you restored our lives, Lord Jesus, come in glory." The empty tomb is there to prove our Savior lives, and so our lives are worth living in the midst of difficult struggles and in times of great tests. Jesus rises in the early morning of the first day of the week, on the day God made light; called Sunday. The Sun rises from the East, and it is called, "Easter." The light of His resurrection destroys forever the darkness of the tomb of sins and death. Jesus is the Son of God is the true Sun that never sets. By the power of His resurrection, He gives meaning to all our sufferings, Lenten preparations and all the efforts we made in the past for betterment of community.

May the risen Lord, with His great light take away the darkness of wars and conflicts, which bring sicknesses, hunger, separation, and deprivations in the world! May it remove all our fears, weariness and doubts that come from grief! Instead, may His light continue to shine as rays of love, understanding, forgiveness and respect on each and every family! May everyday be a new day of hope for the better! The Body of our Savior was not stolen or taken away, but He rises from the dead, may we be able to rise above our troubles and problems!

Many blessings of the risen Lord, and a very happy Easter to you all!

Father Anton Nyo, M.S.
