Divine Mercy Sunday

*Eternal Father,
 I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son,
 Our Lord, Jesus Christ,
 in atonement for our sins
 and those of the whole world.*

"Surround ourselves with the reality of the Resurrection everyday. First, we are witnesses like the woman at the tomb, where new life springs forth in nature and relationships in our life, we encounter new life and we are those witnesses. Secondly, Alleluia! Rejoice in the small and big things in our lives, recognize God's presence everyday. Third, Be Not Afraid, the woman were fearful and excited, sometimes we encounter both of those things in our lives. Happy Easter works everyday of the year, for we have been forever changed, saved by the Lord's Resurrection! Let Alleluia be our prayer!" (USCCB, Msgr. James Vlaun, 4/18/2022 reflection)

This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week
April 24, 2022

1st Reading Acts 5:12-16
Signs and Wonders

Signs accompanied the early Church's preaching. They indicated clearly what the impending kingdom of God was all about, namely, the defeat of evil, the healing of wounds, and the advent of salvation. People held the early Church in great esteem. Can your community have a great esteem for your congregation? What does your congregation stand for?

Start by showing what Christianity really means in your conduct, and make creative suggestions wherever feasible! "Let the house of Israel [the church—your congregation—you] say, 'His [God's] mercy endures forever'".

Responsorial Psalm:

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

2nd Reading Rev 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19
The First and the Last

Addressing seven local churches in Asia Minor, John uses the apocalyptic language of vision. Since the Second Reading for the next six Sundays will be taken from the Book of Revelation (or the Apocalypse), we should keep in mind the very esoteric literary form in which this book is written and take special pains to uncover the true meaning underlying it. In the center of his vision, the author describes the Son of Man, Jesus Christ, who shares power with God.

Gospel John 20:19-31
Living Faith

By relating the well-known tradition concerning the unbelieving Thomas, the writer of John indicates that even seeing, as Thomas did, is no guarantee of faith. Faith comes by hearing the word of the risen Lord who addresses Thomas personally. Christianity knows the golden rule: faith comes from hearing. It is God, personally addressing you in an "I-Thou" situation!

This intangible situation can never be fully explained, just as we cannot explain what exactly happens when someone falls in love! Respond when the Lord says "Shalom—peace" to you in any situation of your life and keep that faith alive!
