GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY
MAY 7/8

Our retired priests dedicated themselves over many years to the service of God's people and we are grateful for the service they have rendered to our community. Your donations supplement the diocesan pension fund, covering the costs of sustenance, housing, medical and dental insurance, and other needs as our retired priests move into their elder years.

Give generously on May 7/8 or you may donate online today:

...Simon, son of John, do you love Me?
 He said to Him,
 Yes, Lord, You know that I love You.
 He said to him,
 Shepherd My sheep.

John 21:36

This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week
May 1, 2022

1st Reading Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41
Preaching the Name

The disciples had experienced the Lord Jesus as living after his crushing death on the cross. They shared their joy with others. His death was not a defeat but a victory. Indeed, he had a message for a better future. And since he was alive, his message of repentance and forgiveness of sins was still valid. The power structure of those days told the disciples to stop talking about this man, but, full of his Spirit, they could not comply.

Are we so convinced of Jesus and what he stands for that we share our experiences spontaneously through word and example?

Responsorial Psalm:

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

2nd Reading Rev 5:11-14
The Throne of God

The writer uses the apocalyptic language of vision. He consoles Christians with our common faith that the Lord Jesus is alive and exalted with God. "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain...": Jesus is compared with the sacrificial lambs that were presented as sin offerings in the temple of Jerusalem. He is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.

"I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth" this saying is conditioned by the Hebrews' understanding of the universe. For them, the earth is a plate, heaven is up, and down is "sheol," the netherworld, where the dead go. "The one who sits on the throne" is God. "The Lamb" is Jesus Christ. "The four living creatures" represent all of life: the lion, mobility; the bull, strength; the man, wisdom; the eagle, swiftness (see Rv 4:7).

God's word to us could be: Be consoled. Whatever your problems are, the Lord Jesus is alive and powerful. Turn to him in faith!

Gospel John 21:1-19 or 21:1-14
Christ is Lord

The tradition found in this reading brings out what the risen Lord meant to the disciples in the view of John who relates it, and at the same time what he means to us. The Lord is always with us, though often, like the disciples, we do not recognize him.

A meal is the symbol of togetherness. At the meal described by the author, Peter experienced the Lord's mercy. When we share the Eucharistic meal with our Lord, we should get to know and love him evermore.

PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Brothers and Sisters/ Parishioners / Co-sojourners as Kula Catholic Community,

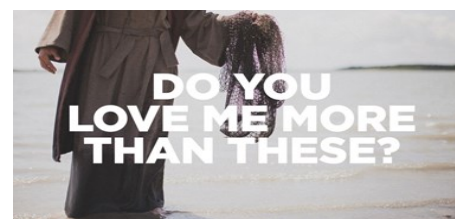

Nothing is impossible with the Lord, as nothing is possible without Him!

God made everything possible with LOVE. Where there is love, there is humility, openness, and obedience. Peter and the rest headed towards a wrong direction that instead of fishing people; preaching them good news, they went to fish and caught nothing. However, by the command of the Lord, they caught 153 big fish without causing the net to tear unlike when they were without the Lord and had caught nothing, their hearts were torn apart with grief and meaninglessness of life. So, even though we bring so many people into the Church, symbolized by the boat, our unity is preserved. God seals us with His love in unbroken brotherhood and remain as an undivided Church.

Peter stood corrected and then was being reaffirmed of his position and reappointed as the head of the Church; to feed the lamb, tend the sheep and nourish the flock of the Lord with Sacraments, with sound teachings to protect it from errors. It was done by pure love, which demands sacrifice to prioritize the need of the community he served. True Love is the real rock that can never be crushed by the attack of evil forces, the enemies of the Lord.

Let us call to mind our own different vocations, that we may be faithful to the Lord in all acts. We might have failed many times, had chosen wrong paths, and had made mistakes but let us be reminded that not all flowers are fully bloom, not all eggs are hatched, as not all seeds become tall trees. In the same way, not all our efforts and endeavors have been successful, but no sacrifices had been in vain.

Let this be our personal prayer; "Change my heart Lord so that I will be able to change my family, community, and the world. Forgive the wrong I have done in the past and hold my hands to take your road!" Amen. Father Anton Nyo, M.S.
