MAHALO!!

Prayer Quilt Ministry: The recipients of the 178th and 179th quilts are Patty Keau and Evelyn Barrett who are in need of our prayers. May God's healing blessings be with them. The power of prayer is what this ministry is founded on to bring comfort in times of illness and distress. The only criteria to be gifted a prayer quilt is that the person is experiencing serious life challenges. Please call the office, and I'll forward the request to the Ladies. Holy Ghost Gift Shop: The Gift Shop is open on Wednesdays & Fridays from 11am to 3pm. In addition they will continue to open after the 5pm Mass & on Sundays from 9am to 10:45am. Phone 878-1091 during shop hours. Holy Ghost Church will be opened when Gift Shop is open. Homebound Parishioners: If you would like to have an E.M. come to your home and administer Communion to you, please call the Office 878-1261. Catholic Charities Maui: Please call Catholic Charities Maui at 873-4673, press 1 and leave a message for rental, mortgage and utilities help. Federal funds available for back rent & utilities! Electronic Gate at Our Lady Queen of Angels: Monday to Friday, gate opens at 6am, closes at 7pm; Saturday-gate opens at 6am to noon; Sunday, gate opens at 6am—9:30am only. Non-Perishable Food donations welcome! Church Bulletin Announcements: due by Wednesday at noon prior to weekend. Office closed: Monday, May 16 and on Wednesday, May 18 will open at 1pm.

147th Anniversary of St. James the Less Feast Celebration

On Sunday, May 1st after the 12noon Mass a celebration to mark the 147th Anniversary of St. James the Less Mission Church was attended by both parishioners and the Ulupalakua & Kanaio Community. It was great to break bread with one another! Pics below: lunch under the tent; Eugene, Winona & Fr Anton entertaining; the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet & Ohana.

This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week
May 15, 2022

1st Reading Acts 14:21-27
Conversion of the Gentiles

On their way home from their missionary journey, Paul and Barnabas revisit the congregations that they have previously founded. Notice the encouragement "to persevere in the faith..." "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships if we are to enter into the kingdom of God."

Indeed the Christian can sing: "[God] Your kingdom is a kingdom for all ages, and your dominion endures through all generations. I will praise your name forever" (Responsorial Psalm). We have reason for abundant joy, but we must be ready to undergo trials as a condition to enter God's kingdom.

Responsorial Psalm:

I will praise your name forever, my king and my God.

2nd Reading Rev 21:1-5a
God's Dwelling

Utilizing the language of vision, the sacred writer consoles those who "must undergo many hardships" (First Reading). According to the ancients, storms at sea were thought to be caused by evil monsters; hence, "sea" stood for threat and peril. Accordingly, the words "the sea was no more" mean that all peril had passed.

The author also sees "the holy city, a new Jerusalem": God had been present in the sanctuary of the old Jerusalem temple; now there will be a new kind of divine presence, enjoyed by all the members of God's people. All these new things are initiated in their lives as Christians, but they will be fully realized only later. During the Easter Season, meditation on God's saving presence may help us to persevere in the faith.

Gospel John 13:31-33a,34-35
The New Commandment

In this reading, Jesus is seen looking forward to his glorification, his enthronement as Son of Man, King of God's reign. And God will be glorified in him.

Today Christ is no longer visibly present to his Church. He knows that we are subjected to trials (First Reading). Waiting for his return, the disciples and all of us must support one another with our mutual love and concern. This life-style, mutual support in love, is so characteristic of Christians that others should be able to recognize us by it!

"Everyone is in need of reassurance, and if we, who have touched 'the Word of life' (1 Jn 1:1) do not give it, who will? How beautiful it is to be Christians who offer consolation, who bear the burdens of others and who offer encouragement: messengers of life in a time of death!"

PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Brothers and Sisters/ Parishioners / Co-sojourners as Kula Catholic Community,

Jn. 13:31-35...

Jesus calls us to be his disciples by following his commandment, which is LOVE. Love is the only instrument God gives us to overcome hardships and so to enter his kingdom. He left this greatest gift for his disciples before he was about to submit himself to the executioners. For those who persevere in his love under so many hardships on earth, attain eternal life, which is called "new heaven and new earth." Rev. 21:1. To be in this place means to join the wedding feast of the lamb with His Bride the Church, which is called New Jerusalem. They live happily ever after in the place free from sadness and sorrow, corruption of the body, destruction of the mind, pollution of the thoughts, disturbances of peace and deterioration of the heart, instead in a place of perfection.

Let us continue to pray for the conversion of the hearts so that everyone will renew this earth with forgiveness, reconciliation, and peace.

Father Anton

Happy Birthday Father Anton

God Bless you always with a strong mind & strong back!

With Love your Kula Catholic Community Ohana
