The power of prayer is what this ministry is founded on to bring comfort in times of illness and distress. The only criteria to be gifted a prayer quilt is that the person is experiencing serious life challenges. Please call the office, and I'll forward the request to the Ladies.

Diocesan Priest Retirement Fund, Second Collection

Our retired priests dedicated themselves over many years to the service of God's people, and we are grateful for the service they have rendered to our community. Your donations supplement the diocesan pension fund, covering the costs of sustenance, housing, medical and dental insurance, and other needs as our retired priests move into their elder years. They were there for us. Let's be there for them now.

This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week
May 8, 2022

1st Reading Acts 13:14, 43-52
Salvation in Jesus

Paul and Barnabas had the joyful experience of making many converts, but they also had to face the pain of rejection. Though persecuted, they could not but be "filled with joy and the Holy Spirit."

Life is never a continuous success story. When things do not go your way, think of Paul and Barnabas and their disciples, and with great faith make the Responsorial Psalm your prayer to God: "We are his people: the sheep of his flock." God Cares!

Responsorial Psalm:

We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

2nd Reading Rev 7:9, 14b-17
The Blood of the Lamb

In veiled language, the sacred writer encourages his fellow Christians who are in "the time of great distress." The phrase "white in the blood of the Lamb" signifies being cleansed from sin through Jesus' meritorious death on the cross.

God's word to us is that a Christian life does not shield us from disappointments and even suffering. Be conscious of God who will eventually wipe every tear also from your eyes.

Gospel John 10:27-30
The Good Shepherd

In using the imagery of shepherd and flock, Jesus brings out the same message as that of the Second Reading. When you are depressed, keep up your courage! Jesus cares. No one shall snatch you out of God's Hand unless you yourself turn away from him. Jesus knows you and your problems!

Mahalo Mark & Jean for your time and energy in planting, watering and tending to these beautiful flowers!

See you at the Holy Ghost Feast!

PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Brothers and Sisters/ Parishioners / Co-sojourners as Kula Catholic Community,

Happy Mothers' Day!

We celebrate mothers' day on this Good Shepherd Sunday. God is loving and a nourishing God. As a good shepherd, He looks for us even when we try to hide from Him. Adam, Adam, where are you? Gn. 3:9 and then when Cain killed his brother Abel, God said again, "Cain where is your brother Abel?" He also feeds His flock, with bread from heaven. He protects us from our enemies as our fortress. Ps. 91:2. He heals our wounds of our bodies and broken hearts. Ps. 137:3. He knows each one of us by name. Gn. 33:17. Jer. 1:5.

We can now see God's act in our loving and caring mothers. The mothers who not only gave birth to us but also nurture us and take care of us in our pilgrimage in life. Let us continue to pray for our mothers that they may be filled with God's blessings of good health, happiness, protection and true peace of mind. Amen. Father Anton
