ROE VS WADE OVERTURNED

WASHINGTON - In response to the Supreme Court of the United States issuing its ruling in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, Archbishop José H. Gomez of Los Angeles, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) and Archbishop William E. Lori of Baltimore, chairman of the USCCB's Committee on Pro-Life Activities issued the following statement:

“This is a historic day in the life of our country, one that stirs our thoughts, emotions and prayers. For nearly fifty years, America has enforced an unjust law that has permitted some to decide whether others can live or die; this policy has resulted in the deaths of tens of millions of unborn children, generations that were denied the right to even be born. “Now is the time to begin the work of building a post-Roe America. It is a time for healing wounds and repairing social divisions; it is a time for reasoned reflection and civil dialogue, and for coming together to build a society and economy that supports marriages and families, and where every woman has the support and resources she needs to bring her child into this world in love. (USCCB Statement excerpt 6/24/22)

This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week
June 26, 2022

1st Reading 1 Kgs 19:16b, 19-21
Call to Elisha

This narrative tells about a call and the acceptance of the challenge to be a prophet, one who speaks in the name of God. If the prophet speaks up as he should, he knows that evil will resist him—even with a certain degree of violence. The action of throwing one's cloak over another possess a symbolism similar to that of imposing hands on another. Here it stands for transmitting the charism of prophecy. This tradition is used to introduce a similar challenge of Jesus to his disciples in today's Gospel.

God's word to us in this narrative is clear: Accept the challenge to be a resolute Christian. Make the words of the Responsorial Psalm your own and praise God for your call to be a Christian.

Responsorial Psalm:

You are my inheritance, O Lord.

2nd Reading Gal 5:1, 13-18
Freedom in Christ

Paul states that salvation comes through faith and not as a result of observing the Mosaic Law. It is a free gift of God. A Christian is free, but Paul qualifies Christian freedom. It is a freedom for love. One may ask: Do we need the ramifications of love and its applications to life situations known as laws? Yes, because of our limited human condition.

If we were so mature in Christ that the compass of love would point out the direction unflinchingly, we could do without the laws that explain the ramifications of love in various human situations. Usually we are not. Laws are needed, but their observance should always be guided and motivated by love.

Gospel Lk 9:51-62
Following Christ

From this passage we learn that Jesus resolutely accepted the consequences of his preaching of God's kingdom. Renewing society and cleansing it from evil provokes resistance and even violence when the preacher of righteousness attacks an evil power structure. And Jesus requires that same resoluteness from his followers. Putting one's hand to the plow but looking back makes one unfit for the kingdom of God.

How strong is your commitment to Christ, and were are you inclined to take the easy way?
