Thoughts for the Week

1st Reading Is 66:10-14c
God's Goodness

The prophet compares the holy city, Jerusalem with a mother who receives the returning exiles back at her breasts. But the prophet is well aware that rebuilding a ruined country is not so simple; it involves much frustration. Hence, he also consoles his people. Have hope! Sometime in the future, God will bestow shalom-prosperity on his chosen people!

We apply this promise to our own situation. We have been freed from the alienation/exile/bondage of evil. But we do not yet share in the shalom and blessings of the heavenly Jerusalem. It is the "already" and "not yet" we have to live with. Make the Responsorial Psalm your prayer of thanksgiving for what you possess as a Christian, and keep your hope alive for perfect happiness to come. "For thus says the Lord:...as a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you."

Responsorial Psalm:

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

2nd Reading Gal 6:14-18

Boasting in the Lord

Paul refers to what he had to suffer as a missionary. Most of his pain was caused by his fellow Jews who did not accept his vision of the new Israel of God. According to them, Gentiles who joined the Church should be circumcised according to the rule of the Jewish faith. Paul states that it does not matter.

All that matters is that one is created anew. "Peace [shalom] and mercy be to all who follow this rule." This could be God's message to us! We are created a new, reborn from water and Spirit. This is what gives us real shalom-peace and constitutes the reason for our gratitude.

Gospel Lk 10:1-12, 17-20 or 10:1-9

Spreading the Good News

What Jesus said to the Twelve (9:1-6), Luke now has him say to the seventy-two. The numbers symbolize respectively the twelve tribes of Israel and the nations of the world. The quintessence of the Christian blessing (God's gift to humankind) is shalom-prosperity. On entering any house, the seventy-two are to say first of all: "Peace to this household." The next part of their message should be: "The kingdom of God is at hand." The mission of the seventy-two was successful. They expelled demons!

What actually happened? Some good was done to those who received the message. Much evil went on as before. This is the "already" and "not yet" of God's kingdom in each individual and in the world at large. Shalom-peace-spiritual prosperity is with us. We should be grateful for what God has given us in baptism. But we should realize that God's kingdom is only initiated in this world. Full realization and perfect bliss will come later. Christians can be optimists always, as long as they do good to the best of their ability.

PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Brothers and Sisters/ Parishioners / Co-sojourners as Kula Catholic Community,

From the twelve intimate collaborators, now Jesus appointed seventy-two. To preach the word of God and His kingdom, Jesus uses many other personnel; He uses their hands and their feet, their mouths, and their lips. In the year 2021 there are about 1.329 billion Catholics and we have only 414,336 priests and missionaries in the world. It means a catholic priest is to minister to at least 4,000 faithful. How about preaching to those who had not heard of Christ? Therefore, we need more ministers or close collaborators of Jesus. "The harvest is rich, but the workers are few." Mt. 9:37. If we cannot send our children to become priests and religious, let us at least support them by our prayers and donations. There are many missionaries being sent to the far-flung areas, where there are so many dangers and risks, and they need our moral support. So that the mission entrusted to the Church will be a successful one that all of us will be proud of in the Name of the Lord Jesus.
