Our Lady Queen of Angels Feast Day

This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week
July 31, 2022

1st Reading Eccl 1:2; 2:21-23
The Folly of Vanity

When we read the Bible, we expect "Gospel," which means "good news." On first reading this passage, we would be inclined to characterize it as bad news. "All things are vanity." If life is an absurdity, why go on living it in the first place?

Actually, this passage is a very strong statement of what human life is without God. Only if we relate life to God directly in prayer and worship and indirectly in meeting him in other human beings does existence make sense. "If today you hear his [God's] voice, harden not your hearts".

Responsorial Psalm:

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

2nd Reading Col 3:1-5, 9-11
Christ Our Life

Our friends and those with whom we socialize can have a great effect on us—either for good or for evil. Thus, we advise youngsters to get out of the wrong gang. Good friends, however, have an uplifting impact. Paul expects a similar effect from our being in company with Christ: "Seek what is above."

In baptism, you have died to selfishness and sin. But this dying to evil is an ongoing process which results in growing into the image of the Creator. Remaining in Christ's company makes life meaningful.

Gospel Lk 12:13-21
True Wealth in God

The rich fool of this passage lived his life without reference to God. And, indeed, a life without reference to God is an absurdity. Where does God fit into your money-making process?

Concern for the future is good stewardship. But if concern becomes greed, egotism, keeping up with the neighbors, inspired by the philosophy that "we live only once," you are in trouble. You are only God's steward of all that you possess! Do you feel responsible for those less fortunate?

PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Brothers and Sisters/ Parishioners / Co-sojourners as Kula Catholic Community,

The first reading for today tells us about how useless the things of earth are for we can take nothing with us when we leave this world. That is why in the second reading, St. Paul tells us that we are to hold on to the things above or on Christ himself and the gospel tells us to make ourselves rich in things which matter to God. There are people who have headache because they do not know what to do with so many properties they have while others go to bed dizzy every night because of hunger as there is nothing left for them to fill their empty stomach.

Today as Kula Catholic Community, we celebrate our patroness: "Our Lady Queen of Angels." Mary is filled with the things of God. She is concerned about only one thing, which is to do the will of God. For this reason, perfection of God's creation is found in Mary. Angels of God surround her/their queen of heaven and earth, carried her to the highest heaven and put a crown of glory on her head with twelve stars, clothe her with the Sun and the Moon under her feet. Rev. 12:1.

As we continue to worship Christ The King of the universe on this feast of Our Lady Queen of Angels, let us ask her intercession, that we may overcome all evils in our lives, that we may choose to do things pleasing to God alone so that one day we may also enjoy the accompany of the angels with each guardian angel of our own. Father Anton M.S.

World Day
for Grandparents
and the Elderly
2022

July 24, 2022

Prayer for Grandparents and the Elderly

I give thanks to you, Lord, for the blessings of a long life. For, to those who take refuge in You, grant always to bear fruit. Forgive, O Lord, resignation and disillusionment, but forsake me not when my strength declines.

Teach me to look with hope to the future you give me, to the mission you entrust to me and to sing your praises without end.

Make me a tender craftsman of Your revolution, to guard with love my grandchildren and all the little ones who seek shelter in You.

Protect, O Lord, Pope Francis and grant Thy Church to deliver the world from loneliness. Direct our steps in the way of peace. Amen.

Congratulations on your 67th Wedding Anniversary!
