19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into. Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

Luke 12:35-40

A Cross for St. James the Less in Ulupalakua. Blessings to Father Anton who single-handedly built the cross! Jesus was a carpenter too!

This Sunday's Gospel
Thoughts for the Week
August 7th, 2022

1st Reading Wis 18:6-9
Salvation of the Just

"The night of the Passover...": the author refers to the night of the Exodus from bondage in Egypt. It was known centuries earlier by "our fathers, "Abraham, Isaac, Jacob. How? By their faith in a saving God. Whatever happens to human beings, faith in God assures them that somehow God will step in with his loving care.

This passage is a poem on faith. As believers, we feel happy with the sure knowledge of a loving God who cares. "See, the eyes of the Lord are upon those who fear [have filial respect for] him, upon those who hope for his kindness".

Responsorial Psalm:

Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

2nd Reading Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19 or 11:1-2, 8-12
Faith

"By faith Abraham obeyed...; he went out, not knowing where he was to go." His journey was apparently "without benefit of declaration." However, faith in God made his journey meaningful. The sacred writer himself suggests the application of this ancient tradition to our own life situation: "They desire a better homeland, a heavenly one."

We are pilgrims who go through the valley of darkness. Faith in a destiny makes the journey meaningful. Abraham's faith was tested. So will yours be! Faith implies an element of doubt, just as love does. You cannot always possess it peacefully. Like love, faith must be fostered by communication, i.e., meditative prayer!

Gospel Lk 12:32-48 or 12:35-40
Awaiting the Lord

Jesus encourages us to "desire a better homeland, a heavenly one". "Do not be afraid...your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom."

But be prepared! "Gird your loins and light your lamps" like the Jews about to leave Egypt! The moment you least expect it, you could be summoned to take "that loath journey," from which there is no return (Every-man).

PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Brothers and Sisters/ Parishioners / Co-sojourners as Kula Catholic Community,
 "How can you be ready for the coming of the Lord?"

Not all of us finished masters' degrees, doctorate degrees in colleges or universities but all of us should have earned Ph. D not "Doctor of Philosophy" but "Prepare for a Happy Death." We know we are to be ready for the coming of the Lord, to prepare for a happy death but it is hard to comprehend what things we should prepare and how to prepare them? Besides, it is also important to ask how excited we are to meet the Lord because most of us want to be with the Lord and yet we still want to enjoy the pleasure of the world.

We can make ourselves ready by repenting for the wrong, we have done in the past and starting to follow the law of God at all times; treating others with love, affection and justice, make ourselves busy with good things of the Lord. Start now and don't wait for the moment when the Lord comes and knock at our door and say you have two days to live, or the doctor will give us only a few more months as our sickness is catching up with you! Father Anton M.S.

Our Lady Queen of Angels Feast Day

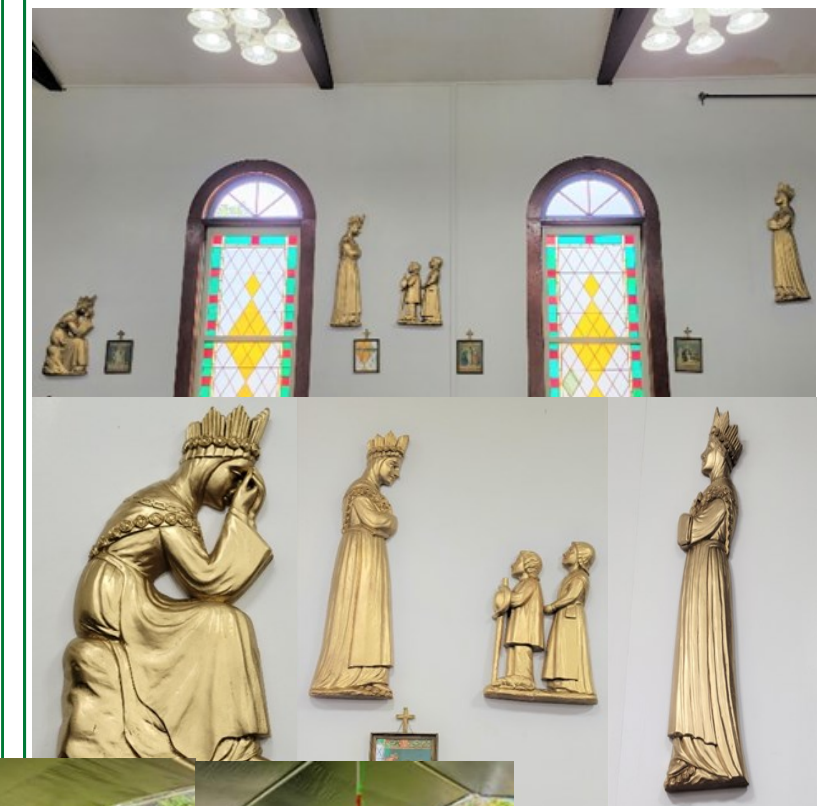

October ~ Rosary-Marian Devotion

A statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary will be hosted in homes in the Kula Catholic Community. Family and friends can be invited to join the host family in saying the rosary. It may be possible to host for several days, depending on how many shows interest in hosting. In August we will have a sign up for those interested in being a host and in September we will work with host families to set dates to participate. There is a comment column on the sign-up form, if you have a special request or information helpful for scheduling, you can note it there.

Please welcome our Blessed Mother into your homes as we pray together.

Our Lady of La Salette
The wooden carvings that have been in our hall for awhile now has a home in Our Lady Queen of Angels!

Fun, Food & Fellowship!
Did I mention dancing, too?
It was a beautiful day...
